

Leave the Wisconsin Do-Not-Call list alone. It is what the citizens of Wisconsin wanted and worked hard to get. We do not want the Federal government to water down what is working for us. You can make it tougher, but I think you should not have the right to weaken the law as we wrote it. We know best what our citizens want. Thank you for this opportunity to express my wishes.